

PLEASE do not alter the do not call rulings. for the first time in years i can answer the telephone and it will be a personal call for me. i had to use a recording machine to screen all my calls. this is very trying for a senior citizen. i do not feel that solicitors should be invading the privacy of my home.